

Michael & Susan Dell Foundation Online Grant Proposal – Grant Planning Worksheet
Updated Feb 7, 2008

Thank you for your interest in the Michael & Susan Dell Foundation. Making a grant request consists of the following steps:

- You must meet basic Eligibility Requirements for funding. You can determine if your organization and project meet our basic eligibility requirements online at www.MSDF.org/MSDFGrantApp.
- You must submit an Online Grant Proposal via our website. All unsolicited proposals must be received online via our website.
- You must complete a Grant Application at the request of Michael & Susan Dell Foundation staff. After submitting an Online Grant Proposal, it will be reviewed by Michael & Susan Dell Foundation staff. Should your project align with Foundation programs, we will contact you to complete a Grant Application.

Please take the time to become familiar with our Foundation Priorities before initiating this process. You may refer to our Programs, Master Grant List, and Frequently Asked Questions on our website for detail on the types of grants we fund.

This worksheet is provided to you so you can collect the information required for your grant request prior to starting your Online Grant Proposal. You are encouraged to determine whether your organization and project is eligible to submit an unsolicited proposal BEFORE you complete this Grant Planning Worksheet. You may determine your eligibility to submit an unsolicited proposal by answering the brief Eligibility Requirements questions at the start of the online proposal process. To determine your eligibility or to begin the online grant proposal, go to www.MSDF.org/MSDFGrantApp.
